PRESENTS A WEEK OF SEMINARS WITH DR. ROLAND GUNTHER, MD (GERMANY), PHD, HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

HO' OponoPono WITH CHRISTINE OMONIYI

Ho' oponoPono originated with an old Hawaiian healing ceremony. Psychiatrist Dr. Hew Len developed an updated version of it for a Western audience. Ho' oponoPono is a modality of love and forgiveness. This process provides a new flow for emotional energies that have been stuck. Old patterns, deeply rooted in painful memories can be released. Inner peace is established and allows for inspiration and new choices. Because of its brilliant simplicity it can be easily learnt and practiced in any life circumstances. In this evening workshop there will be an introduction into the philosophy of Ho' oponoPono. The focus will be on practical exercises, which will enable you to use it on your own afterwards for healing yourself and others.

BUTTERFLIES – FLYING JEWELS IN THE REALM OF HOMEOPATHY

Homeopathy has expanded vastly and at a very fast pace during the last decades. Ten years ago one single butterfly remedy was discovered, meanwhile it is more than a dozen. Roland Gunther has been spearheading homeopathic research and contributed to the expansion of our knowledge about numerous new remedies through his trituration work. Tonight he is going to introduce the butterfly remedies to us, their beauty, their natural history, their characteristics in homeopathy and the wonderful results they give us in treating situations like ADD/ADHD or even the consequences of severe pathologies like birth trauma and others. This evening is a jewel for homeopaths and for everyone who wants to have a deeper insight in the mysterious ways homeopathy is applied and can cure.

DYADS - KEEPING THE BOAT AFLOAT

Dyads are an excellent way of reaching a deep level understanding of yourself and your partner. You will be surprised about what you will find within yourself and what you are able to express! Dyads are exciting; they are fun and full of surprises. Come on board and hang on for the ride! A Dyad is a formal and structured kind of dialog. The formality guarantees a perfectly safe space which allows a full communication. Each side has time to express itself fully and is being heard fully. You will be surprised how effortlessly stuck situations in your partnership get moving again and tensions loosen up. Even when we feel far from each other, in a short while there will be a bridge of understanding. Christiane and Roland use this tool almost daily in their partnership. This practice makes them such competent teachers. The evening consists mainly of practical exercises. The skills you are going to learn, you can apply the very same day. This evening is a great gift for everybody in a relationship. You may come with your partner or alone.

DEEPENING LOVE – A VALENTINE'S DAY GIFT!

Did you ever come close to a Rose? You probably felt its thorns. Did you ever come close to someone in love? You probably got hurt. No other plant represents love as clearly as the Rose. In all the cultures she is used as a token of love. What do you give to your love on Valentine's Day? Roses! This year we have a special for Valentine's Day: We offer a Rose Trituration! The purpose of the weekend seminar is to use the almost inevitable hurtings in relationships to deepen our capability to love. Another focus will be the balance of surrender and holding your space in an intimate relationship. As a carrier of thorns the Rose does know about standing up for your truth, in her flower she offers her most sensitive parts in total surrender. It is this balance that makes her the most perfect teacher for love relationships you possibly can imagine. The Rose seminar will be a wonderful opportunity to deal with and to heal sensitive issues in intimate relationships. It will be a great gift for couples but also wonderful for singles who want to experience love from a different angle. In a C4-homeopathic trituration we will grind down a tiny little bit of a rose flower with mortar and pestle and in set free the energy it holds. Then we allow the Spirit of the Rose to take us on a journey and to induct us into its mysteries, we allow the Rose to teach us about love. Each participant will have his/her own communication with the Rose. For each one of us she will have very specific revelations. Sharing what we found with the group gives us a rich insight into the nature of the Rose and in the multilayered mysteries of love. Christiane Omoniyi and Roland Gunther will conduct this workshop for us. Each participant will get their gentle support. They both are in a love relationship and they know about the challenges of it. Roland offers his 30 years of experience as a homeopathic doctor, Christiane offers her intimate knowledge as a woman about the meaning of love in different cultures, on different continents. Together they share their passion of the healing of the relationship between the feminine and the masculine, between humans and earth. They convey a grounded spirituality.
